ORAL JUDGEMENT

(Per R.K.Abichandani, J)

1. The following two questions have been referred to the Court for its opinion under Section 256(1) of the

Income Tax Act:

1. "Whether, on the facts and in the circumstances of the case, the Tribunal was right in law in coming to the conclusion that the perquisite for the use of the car for personal purposes should be valued at Rs.2400/- and the same should not be added to the income of the assessee?"
  2. "Whether, on the facts and in the circumstances of the case, the Tribunal was right in law in holding that the assessee was entitled to the full standard deduction as per the provisions of Section 16(1) of the I.T. Act, 1961?"
2. The questions are directly covered by the decision of this Court in Income Tax Reference No. 266 of 1982 decided on 9.11.1995 in which my Esteemed Brother speaking for the Bench put the proposition very tersely that no personal benefit was offered to the assessee by providing the car when for its personal use recovery of expenses was made from the assessee. In this view of the matter, both the questions are answered in the affirmative and against the revenue. The reference stands disposed of with no order as to costs.
